52 Week Index Relative Percentage Appreciation

Tata Invest vs SENSEX

Points to Ponder

Reducing its exposure and creating more focus Tata Investment has consolidated its equity holdings from 171 in 2012 to 131 in 2013. This shows that the management is more focussed and has taken benefit of the appraised prices of any long term investments. Company had, as early as during the year 2011-12, allocated a sizeable amount for investment in fixed income securities with a view that both inflation and interest rates will come down in the coming years. The value of these securities have appreciated, while earning a handsome yield, and further appreciation is possible given the fall in inflation and expected easing of rates from the Central Bank.

Risks Associated

The last three years have been a trying period for equity markets with the country clouded by news of scams, currency depreciation, high inflation and a steep fall in growth. A lower rate of inflation and interest rates pronounce a better macro environment going forward. As per Analysts estimate that the earnings growth of Sensex companies may rebound to double digits for the year 2014-15. Reflecting this sentiment the Sensex has shown a robust trend with the Sensex reaching hits high in early March 2014. However having said that India as a country heavily depends on FII Inflows and the Current Account Deficit to which Equity Markets are the first to react. Since nearly 50% of the companies investment has a high equity market exposure, any continuation of the gloom or another political instability or scams coming out would cause damage.
